

MARRIAGE Made In HEAVEN

How To Choose The Love Of Your Life And Become The Right Spouse

This book is for both married couples and those who are yet to marry, whether they are searching, praying, waiting, dating, or engaged. It is a clear and practical guide that redefines compatibility as something to be practised rather than a perfect match to be found. Compatibility is explored through Character, Outlook, Mentality, Personality, Ability, Temperament, Intuition, Beliefs, Interactions, Looks, Intelligence, Thoughts, Yearnings: COMPATIBILITY.

The book presents a simple and realistic framework built on five core qualities that make love strong and enduring: Faith, Character, Vision, Personality and Looks. The authors define 'MARRIAGE' as Mutual Association Righteously Recognised Institution And Godly Enjoyment. Seven true to life journeys, drawn from real stories, show how prayer, timing, counsel and courage can turn early signs into lasting promises.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Stella Phyllis Randolph has been married to Duke Fitz-Theodore Randolph for 25 years. During the first 14 years of their marriage, they lived together for fewer than four years in total, and only intermittently, as Randolph pursued his doctoral studies in the United Kingdom while Stella remained in Africa. In 2015, Stella and their son, Xristoph, joined Randolph in Europe, where Jeff Wesley was later born. Together, they testify that it is only by God's grace that they have experienced His faithfulness. Stella now manages their social care and healthcare company while studying for a Bachelor of Science with Honours degree in Business and Healthcare Management in London. Randolph mentors graduate students across Europe through Global University, where he serves as an Associate Professor.
