

THE PASIS MODEL

The PASIS Spiritual Gifts Handbook is a practical guide for Christians who want to discover, test, confirm and use their spiritual gifts with wisdom and confidence. It combines Bible teaching, simple exercises, self-assessments, case studies and clear models to help readers understand how God equips His people for service. Through the BIBLE, PASIS, PREP, PEACE and PIERCE frameworks, this handbook leads readers step by step from reflection to action. It helps individuals and groups identify strengths, recognise areas of growth, and learn how gifts can work together in the Body of Christ. With worksheets, charts, feedback tools and ministry examples, this companion volume turns learning into practice. It is suitable for personal study, church training, leadership development and group workshops. Clear, accessible and deeply practical, this handbook is designed to help believers move from uncertainty to confident service in the kingdom of God. The PASIS Spiritual Gifts Handbook, therefore, invites you to Assess, Confirm and Activate Your Spiritual Gifts with Five Frameworks that are complimentary and interactive.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Professor Duke Fitz-Theodore Randolph (PhD) is the Founder of Global Ministries Daily Bread and an Associate Professor of Ministry at Global University, where he mentors church leaders across Europe, the United States, and Africa. He is the author of several books on ministry, prayer, leadership, spiritual discernment, marriage, and Christian practice. Randolph recalls that, at the age of eighteen, he was first used prophetically in striking ways. Among his earliest experiences were receiving visions and speaking in tongues, which he understood as clear expressions of spiritual gifts at work in his life. These early manifestations became a foundation for later growth in ministry. In time, he also came to recognise God's grace upon him in the operation of the word of knowledge, the word of wisdom, and teaching gifts. Alongside his academic and ministry work, he remains active in health and social work, mental health, bringing together ministry, scholarship and professional practice as calling, ministry and profession.
